Subject: Invitation to Webinar: Building Sustainable, Community-Driven Childcare Centres in Alberta

Hello,

We hope this message finds you well. We are excited to invite you to our upcoming webinar, "Building Sustainable, Community-Driven Childcare Centres in Alberta." This informative session will explore how co-operatives can be used to create sustainable, community-driven not-for-profit childcare centres in Alberta. We will cover how municipalities and school boards can support and guide the creation of these centres without directly managing daily operations.

Webinar Details:

- Date and Time: December 11, 2024 at noon
- Registration Link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcode6ogjispHdb9Az8FI5sliikMBw-m5pCv>
- If you cannot make it, please still register and a recording of the presentation will be sent directly to you after the event.

What You'll Learn:

- How existing capital, such as infrastructure, can create long-term benefits for the community.
- The role of co-operatives in uniting parents, municipalities, school boards, and other institutional partners.
- Strategies for ensuring inclusive and effective governance.

Why Attend?

- Gain insights into creating sustainable childcare solutions.
- Learn how to leverage community resources for long-term success.
- Understand the benefits of co-operative models in childcare.

Who Should Attend?

- Municipal leaders
- School board members
- Parents and community organizers
- Anyone interested in improving childcare in Alberta

We believe this webinar will provide valuable insights and practical strategies that can benefit your community. Please feel free to forward this invitation to others in your organization who might be interested.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn how co-operatives can transform childcare in your community. Register today and be part of the change!

This is a joint session between Edmonton Council for Early Learning and Care, Child Care Now Alberta and Co-operatives First.
