Earlier this year, the Alberta Government introduced Bill 11, establishing a new independent agency police service in Alberta. This decision was made without consulting Albertans, municipalities, or existing law enforcement agencies and follows the unsuccessful Alberta Provincial Police Service initiative.

Today, the National Police Federation (NPF) is releasing the results of our first survey since the announcement of the independent Alberta police service. Conducted by the independent research firm Pollara Strategic Insights in June 2024, this survey is consistent with previous waves of polling, showing a strong support for Alberta RCMP Members. The new research also indicates a lack of awareness and support for the new independent police service.

Key findings from the survey:

- 84% of respondents believe there are more pressing priorities in Alberta than changing the local policing structure.
- 87% of respondents agree that before any changes to municipal policing, there needs to be detailed accounting of costs and impacts on service levels.
- 86% of respondents want to retain the RCMP, with some local improvements.
- 77% of respondents, in RCMP-served communities, are satisfied with their current policing service.
